

Post Office service at least at current level, if not better, is critical. As an MD, I know how many of my patients rely on the mail for medications, prescriptions, and lab results. As a voter, I need to know that my mail-in ballot will be received! Please do not scale down mail services or close local post offices.